Dana Pencz
Ontario Wine Buyer

An insider's guide to great
Ontario wines.

I love it because...

1. Thomas Bachelder is renowned for making beautiful Pinot Noirs that express their unique Niagara terroirs.
2. Sourced 100% from Escarpment vineyards, it delivers rich, limestone-mineral flavours.
3. It has a complex bouquet of raspberries, violets, and dark red blackberries.

Dana

It takes a village

One of Niagara's most colourful characters, Thomas Bachelder is "on a monk's errand to map out the escarpment with Burgundian-like precision" (John Szabo, MS, winealign.com). Les Villages Pinot Noir gets its name from the grape's ancestral home of Burgundy and its lifted florals, dark fruit, and fine, pure mineral soul from its unmistakably Escarpment terroir.

HENRY OF PELHAM SPECK FAMILY RESERVE PINOT NOIR 2019 🍁

Sustainable, VQA Short Hills Bench, Niagara Escarpment

This top tier Speck Family Reserve Pinot is sourced from Block 100 at the "Old Farm" Vineyard. The wine is aged in European oak barrels, 30% of which is new oak. This is on the sturdier side of Pinots with interesting complexity and firm structure for long aging. The nose is tight and begins with earthy/woody notes followed by black cherries, mulled and brambly raspberries, crunchy cranberries, spice rack and violets. It's lovely on the palate with ripe red berries, earthy/spicy notes, anise and fine-grained tannins that all lead for a pleasant and finessed finish. It's a young Pinot and needs time to fit into its skin, cellaring for 5+ years will pay big dividends. Score: 93 (Rick VanSickle, winesinniagara.com, Dec. 26, 2021)

Beer before wine

KNAPPSTEIN CLARE VALLEY SHIRAZ 2019

Clare Valley, South Australia

The Knappstein family began growing grapes in the Clare Valley in 1969. In 1976 they founded their winery, transforming the original building: a brewery, built in 1878. On the label of this approachable Shiraz you'll find an image of the historical building, and within you'll find the upfront floral and dark fruit tones of a thoroughly modern wine.
