HIDDEN TREASURE

Home to legendary, world-renowned wines, Italy is also a trove of alluring, less-known styles to explore.

One of the most storied, celebrated and beautiful winemaking countries on the planet, Italy is famous for its best-known wines and yet has so much that remains hidden to all but the keenest connoisseurs. Join us as we explore the little-known niches of Italian wine and discover the wonders within. Seeking something novel and exciting from a classic corner of the winemaking world? Look no further.

This is how we roll.

Friuli

An idyllic winter scene in Lussari. RIGHT, TOP: Collio vineyards. RIGHT, BOTTOM: The Canale Grande in Friuli-Venezia Giulia.

Nestled in northeastern Italy between the soaring Alps and the Adriatic Sea, Friuli is part of the larger Friuli-Venezia Giulia region, where grand Renaissance palazzos sit side by side with architecture reminiscent of neighbouring Austria and Slovenia. Home to world-class skiing and equally world-class winemaking, the region was historically known for white wines (especially from the local Friulano grape) but has recently begun gaining international attention and accolades for its reds.

The finest examples of Friuli reds, often made with international varieties, are elegant and expressive, with vibrant fruit character and plenty of food-friendly acidity.

TERRE MAGRE MERLOT 2021

MONTE DEL FRÀ BARDOLINO 2021
DOC

Candied strawberries, raspberries and fine herbs with a floral lift. Medium body with crunchy red berries and juicy plums on the palate, creating a simple but joyous mouth-feel with some sweet-sour berries. Drink now, while it's still fresh and juicy. Score: 90 (jamesuckling.com, Aug. 8, 2022)

Classic pairing / fresh Asiago and prosciutto crudo.

Also try / prosciutto pizza.

Why it works / The saltiness of the food enhances the wine's juicy sweet-and-sour character.

Medium-bodied & Fruity

134544 (D) 750 mL $18.95

MONTE DEL FRÀ LUGANA 2020
DOC

This creamy, polished white offers scents of fragrant white flowers, tropical fruit and peach. Reflecting the nose, the savory palate doles out juicy apricot, green melon and orange zest flavors before closing on a hint of white almond. Score: 90 (Kerin O'Keefe, Wine Enthusiast, Nov. 1, 2021)

Classic pairing / lake fish alla gardesana (fish with vegetables, anchovies, garlic and capers).

Also try / seafood antipasti.

Why it works / The zesty flavours and acidic zing of the wine are great foils for briny bites.

West of Friuli in the alpine foothills halfway between Venice and Milan sits the glittering Lake Garda, which is the largest lake in Italy and a popular tourist destination. Its waters and shoreline are divided between the provinces of Brescia (to the southwest), Verona/Veneto (southeast) and Trentino (north) in Italy's northern reaches. Along its shores sits a series of tiny yet fascinating wine regions, each with its own specialties.

The Bardolino region is best known for nervy red wines made from the same Corvina, Molinara and Rondinella grapes used in nearby Valpolicella. Lugana, meanwhile, has built its reputation on bold, complex white wines made from a local strain of Italy's ubiquitous Trebbiano grape.

Langhe

The charming town of Barolo. OPPOSITE: Working through the last light in a Roero vineyard.

Situated south of the Tanaro River in between the world-famous appellations of Barolo and Barbaresco in Italy's northwestern Piedmont region, the rolling hillsides of Langhe are home to picturesque vineyards that are gaining prominence on the world stage. Rich in history and natural beauty, the Langhe has been inhabited since Neolithic times and, along with its neighbours Monferrato and Roero, has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2014.

Much like Barolo and Barbaresco, the Langhe makes its most celebrated wines from the local Nebbiolo grape. These are elegant, structured wines, the best examples of which can exhibit extraordinary longevity.

FONTANAFREDDA EBBIO
NEBBIOLO 2020
DOC Langhe

In Piedmont, Nebbiolo is responsible for some of Italy's most famous wines, including Barolo. It's a difficult grape to master, but Fontanafredda has been producing benchmark expressions of these wines for more than 160 years. This one spent four months in oak and will be floral, earthy and subtly smoky, with red fruit, good harmony and balance, bright acidity and firm tannins.

Classic pairing / veal with wild mushrooms and white truffles.

Also try / mushroom ravioli.

Why it works / The earthy quality of the wine complements the flavour of the mushrooms.

Full-bodied & Firm

There are many motivations behind selecting an Italian wine. But the one thing that we can be sure of is that we are seeking hidden gems to take our palate to paradise.”

Tony Margiotta

The Fontana Pretoria
has graced Palermo,
Sicily since 1574.

Umbria

The medieval town of Passignano sul Trasimeno.
LEFT: Marmore Falls.

Smack-dab in the middle of central mainland Italy is the region of Umbria. Bordered by Tuscany to the west and north, Marche to the east and Lazio to the south, Umbria is the only landlocked region on the Apennine Peninsula. Despite this, its geography and natural beauty are defined by water features: the great Tiber River, tranquil Lake Trasimeno, and cascading Marmore Falls, the latter a man-made waterfall engineered by the ancient Romans.

Umbria's most celebrated wines are reds made from the Sagrantino variety grown in the Montefalco appellation and Sangiovese-based wines made in the hilly appellation of Torgiano.

LUNGAROTTI RUBESCO ROSSO DI
TORGIANO 2019

DOC

(Cantine Giorgio Lungarotti)

Ripe plums and cherries on the nose, together with hints of walnuts and light coffee. Medium- to full-bodied with a silky mouth feel and rich fruit. The very fine tannins give a little pull on the finish. Sangiovese and colorino. Drink now. Score: 92 (jamesuckling.com, Aug. 4, 2021)

Classic pairing / porchetta with fagiolina del trasimeno (black-eyed peas).

Also try / pork-and-beans pot pie.

Why it works / The elegance of the wine won't overpower the mellow flavours of the food.

Taurasi

South of Umbria in the inland reaches of western Italy's Campania region is the tiny town of Taurasi. It sits within the province of Avellino, whose charming towns and villages are, compared to the bustling tourist hotspots elsewhere in Italy, almost completely unknown to outsiders. Taurasi itself is centred around the Palazzo Baronale, which dates to Roman times but is now in a Renaissance style.

Surrounding Taurasi are vineyards planted with the Aglianico grape, thought to have been so named by the Greeks, although the vine itself may be native to southern Italy. The wines of Taurasi have helped earn Aglianico its reputation as, along with Nebbiolo and Sangiovese, one of Italy's three most distinguished varieties.

Eye-catching architecture in Taurasi.

VINOSIA SANTANDREA
TAURASI 2014

DOCG
(Luciano Ercolino)

Lots of cracked black pepper and juicy fruit with some dried mushrooms and tea. Full body, round and juicy tannins and a flavorful finish. Drink or hold. Score: 93 (jamesuckling.com, Jan. 22, 2019)

Classic pairing / polpette alla Napoletana (meatballs in tomato sauce with mozzarella).

Also try / Neapolitan pizza.

Why it works / The full body and bold flavours of the wine stand up to the hearty richness of the food.

CUSUMANO NOÀ 2017

Classic pairing / lamb spezzatino (braised lamb with saffron and mint).

Why it works / The rich, dark fruit and spice of the wine elevate the gamey and herbal notes of the food.

TORNATORE ETNA ROSSO 2018

DOC

Wild rose, red woodland berry, graphite and Mediterranean scrub aromas ... the lithe, savory palate combines finesse and racy tension that surround juicy strawberry, sour cherry, star anise and cinnamon ... Drink through 2025. Editors' Choice. Score: 93 (Kerin O'Keefe, Wine Enthusiast, Dec. 1, 2020)

Classic pairing / pasta alla norma (pasta with tomato, eggplant and ricotta).

Why it works / The wine's woodland berry and complex array of spices sing with the equally intricate flavours of the food.

Medium-bodied & Fruity

As a cultural touchpoint and tourist spot, Sicily, the sprawling Mediterranean island just off the tip of mainland Italy's boot, is known the world over. Its prominence as a stopover along ancient trade routes shaped its unique confluence of Greek, Romanic, Byzantine, Arabic, Norman, Gothic and Baroque architectures and cultures, while its prominence as a backdrop in The Godfather made it part of the global zeitgeist. Less well known are the region's wines, which are nearly as diverse as the island itself.

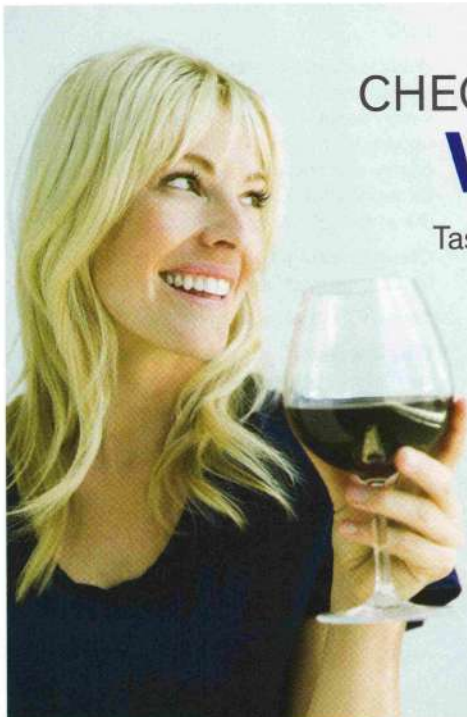

Some of Sicily's finest reds are made from the Nero d'Avola grape, which thrives in the arid vineyards and produces rich, intense wines. Also impressive are reds made from the Nerello Mascalese variety, which primarily grows on the slopes of Mount Etna and produces elegant, expressive wines.

An insider's guide to great Ontario wines.

The local angle

Since founding Leaning Post in 2011, Nadia and Ilya Senchuk have worked to create distinctive, terroir-driven wines that faithfully reflect their unique Niagara origins. The Cuvée Winona is quintessentially Niagara, showing the complex dark and red fruit, savoury herbal tones, and graphite-edged minerality of the region. Leaning towards pouring this at your next big family feast? I'm inclined to agree!

I love it because...

1. This blend of Merlot and Cabernet Franc showcases small-scale artisanal winemaking with minimal intervention.
2. It has notes of plum, strawberry and chocolate.
3. It will pair perfectly with a cheese board including cheddar and parmigiano-reggiano.

A strong bottling of this well-priced champagne (Lot# 61K-1401G – check the back label), Gardet's latest cuvée Saint Flavy is a properly toasty and autolytic example, but also vibrant, crisp and fresh and particularly dry. I like the balance on the palate, the succulent acids, and the impressive depth of flavour. You won't find much better than this from champagne at this price to be sure. Tasted March 2022. HENRY OF PELHAM SPECK FAMILY RESERVE CABERNET/MERLOT 2019 🍁

Sustainable, VQA Short Hills Bench, Niagara Escarpment
Lifted aromas of black plum, dark cherry and bramble berry abound. It captures the palate on entry with red fruit – currants and passion fruit – mingling with generous acidity and plenty of pizzazz. This showcases a supple underpinning of tannin and plenty of fruit that is, for now, slightly overshadowed by the still-evolving tannin. Give this another four to five years of careful cellaring or pour now after a four-hour aeration/decant with a premium cut of well-seasoned beef ... grilled medium-rare. Fruit-forward aromas of fresh berry fruit are intertwined with nuances of gamey notes. The palate's enveloped in a replay of simple berry note aromas with black raspberry and black currant to the fore along with wisps of mixed spice, ripe tannin and oaky notes. This is light on its feet with excellent balance of racy tang, loads of succulent fruit flavours and a soft, ripe barely perceptible tannin underpinning. Drink alongside your favourite pan-seared fish under a squeeze of fresh lemon ... Aerate/decant a couple of hours before serving. Drink or cellar. Exceptional Value! Gualtallary, Tupungato, Valle de Uco, Mendoza ... initially beefy and purposeful in aroma, the plum and sloe fruits emerging in purer form with time in the glass or the decanter. Better still, in place of overt tannins and intrusive acidity there is a kind of sappy, stemmy freshness which combines the function of both texture and acidity – and that, in fact, is the origin of the fruit's notable energy and charm. Wild rose, red woodland berry, graphite and Mediterranean scrub aromas mingle together in this elegant red. Made with 95% Nerello Mascalese and 5% Nerello Cappuccio, the lithe, savory palate combines finesse and racy tension that surround juicy strawberry, sour cherry, star anise and cinnamon before a flinty close. While some may find it almost too ethereally graceful, others will fall in love. Drink through 2025. Editors' Choice. Score: 93 (Kerin O'Keefe, Wine Enthusiast, Dec. 1, 2020)

ANTICHE TERRE VENETE

RIPASSO VALPOLICELLA 2020

DOC

A good value for a wine crafted in the ripasso method, this offers broad appeal. It shows suggestions of baking spice, juicy cherry and dark chocolate all wrapped in velvety tannins, with nice vibrancy and lift. Enjoy now through 2025 with roast beef or pork, or mature firm cheeses.

TUSCANY

TENUTA SAN GUIDO GUIDALBERTO 2020

IGT Toscana

... Though usually a cabernet-dominant blend, this 2020 vintage mixes equal parts cabernet sauvignon and merlot, as it was a year that favoured the latter, earlier-ripening variety (and sangiovese). It's a marvellous wine, ripe but still markedly fresh, gently extracted, with a measured amount of wood influence supporting the broad and plush, dark fruit flavours. Tannins are abundant but velvety, framed by zesty-succulent acids. Length and depth are excellent, lingering on an appealing saline saltiness. Best 2024-2032+. Tasted September 2022. GIUSEPPE CAMPAGNOLA AMARONE DELLA VALPOLICELLA CLASSICO 2018

DOCG

Licorice, dried blackberries, tar, dark spices and a hint of coca cola. A flavorful Amarone with a medium to full body, showing fresh acidity and tangy berries on the palate. A tight, savory delivery that will age nicely over the next 5-8 years. Corvinone, corvina and rondinella. Drink or hold. Score: 93 (jamesuckling.com, July 4, 2022)

STYLE SPOTLIGHT

Niagara's cool climate produces ripe, zesty, aromatically thrilling white wines. Winemakers up the ante by fashioning high-toned blends that combine and amplify that purity of expression. The Creekside Iconoclast is a classic Bordeaux-inspired pairing of Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon and shows complex floral and tropical fruit tones. The Hare White Blend is a playful dance of citrus, lychee, apple and spice born of Riesling and Gewürztraminer.

STANDOUT SELECTIONS

Ontario's 2017 growing season was a volatile and rainy one that ended with perfect conditions. This "miracle" vintage saw unseasonably warm, dry weather through September, October and November, which gave rise to astonishing, juicy, elegant reds. This example is mostly Cabernet Franc and Merlot, with a splash of Syrah adding a hint of chocolatey spice to the dark fruit, tobacco, and savoury herbs.

WINERY FOCUS

Stoney Ridge is uncompromising in its approach to creating high-quality terroir-driven Niagara wines. The Small Lot Chardonnay 2019 comprises Chardonnay from two premium Niagara vineyards and spent a year ageing on the lees before final barrel selection and blending took place. The Pinot Grigio 2020 was fermented in stainless steel and saw no malolactic fermentation, allowing the purity of the Garrett Vineyard to shine through.

Northern reflections

FALERNIA TITÓN SINGLE VINEYARD RESERVA SYRAH 2017
DO Valle del Elqui, Chile

Viña Falernia is Chile's northernmost wine estate, located in the semi-arid Elqui Valley with the dramatic Andes mountains as its backdrop. This 100% Syrah reflects the rugged, beautiful countryside from which it's sourced, showing autumnal woodsmoke, dark fruit, olives, cured meat and pepper. A deeply thoughtful gift.
