Grace and power

BERTANI CATULLO
VALPOLICELLA RIPASSO
CLASSICO SUPERIORE 2019

DOC, Veneto, Italy

17777 (XD) 750 mL $26.95

An atypically light colour for Ripasso, aged in large format French wood following fermentation on pomace of Amarone Classico for one month. This is excellent. There is little to bring awareness to dried fruit characteristics, such is the purity and transparency. A wine of verve, fecund strawberry flavors, a lilt of bergamot and deft levels of concentration. Yet so light on its feet as it pirouettes through the mouth with a mineral twirl and a saline spurt across the long finish. An easy substitute for a quality Burgundy. Drink or hold. Score: 95 (Ned Goodwin, MW, jamesuckling.com, May 9, 2023)

PURE BRED LODI
CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2020

Lodi, California

33815 (XD) 750 mL $24.95

This wine has a plush, engaging personality, with generous, earthy red fruit, fine minerality, oak spices and some toast. It's big on flavour and big on fun. Perfect for mushroom burgers or grilled ribs.

VIVE LA FRANCE!

Whether your tastes run to red, white, rosé or sparkling and whether you're a connoisseur or a newbie, there's always something new to discover and enjoy from the world's most famous wine country.

It's nearly impossible to talk about France without mentioning wine, and vice versa. Many characteristics of the wines we love exist thanks to French ingenuity, culture, history, and technological advancements. Join us as we explore the country's best: Bordeaux's iconic reds, the floral rosés of Provence, crisp Chablis whites, the famously rich sparklers of Champagne and more. There's a little something for everyone in France, so raise a glass and cry "santé!"

RED ALERT

6 VINTAGES

Countless figures throughout history have enjoyed and romanticized French reds, from Salvador Dalí's surrealist meditations on the wines of Bordeaux in his book Les Vins de Gala du Divin to Ernest Hemingway stating, "If I had all the money in the world, I would drink Cahors and water." Though every corner of France makes red wines, those of Bordeaux, Burgundy and Côtes du Rhône are considered the crème de la crème of French quality, beloved by everyone for their exquisite properties that run all along the light-to-heavy spectrum.

MICHEL GASSIER NOSTRE PAÏS 2020

AP Costières de Nîmes, Rhône

As always, the 2020 Costières De Nîmes Nostre País is all about elegance and finesse as opposed to power and opulence. A blend of 60% Grenache, 20% Mourvèdre, 15% Syrah, and the rest Clairette, it has a spicy, red and black-fruited, leather, and dried flower-driven bouquet as well as medium-bodied richness and depth on the palate. With fine tannins and a terrific sense of purity and elegance, enjoy bottles over the coming 4-6 years. It's a year-in, year-out, smoking value. Maturity: 2023-2029. CHÂTEAU DE NAGES HÉRITAGE COSTIÈRES DE NÎMES 2021

AP, Rhône

Beautiful red and black berries, pepper, violets, and a kiss of salty sea breeze all emerge on the nose of the 2021 Costières De Nîmes Héritage, which is medium-bodied, has a supple, elegant mouthfeel, good density, and outstanding length. Based on 60% Grenache, 25% Mourvèdre, and the rest Syrah, this was partially destemmed and brought up 25% in barrel, with the balance in concrete tanks. Score: 89 (jebdunnuck.com, Nov. 2, 2023)

CHÂTEAU LA CROIX DE PEZ 2020

AC Saint-Estèphe, Bordeaux

Succulent and so appealing, a really juicy core of red and black fruits. Tannins are well integrated and not as marked or as present as some. This does still have a serious core, there is concentration but it's really well framed, with the emphasis on bright red fruit and the mouth-watering acidity. Seriously good stuff. Chalky stone giving the terroir. Round and complete. One to wait for, but look out for! Drinking window: 2025-2036. Score: 92 (Georgina Hindle, decanter.com, March 16, 2023)

DOMAINE DES TERRES GENTILES PINOT NOIR 2021

AP Bourgogne, Burgundy

Pinot Noir is an extremely fickle grape that requires a lot of care and attention to produce great wines, meaning it usually fetches a high price. Offering notes of ripe red cherry, strawberry and mushroom with a fine minerality, this lovely example from a respected domaine shows the desirable characteristics of Burgundy Pinot Noir at a great price.

Medium-bodied & Fruity

34254 (XD) 750 mL $23.95 ✓

New at Vintages

Burgundy specializes in the thin-skinned varieties Pinot Noir and Gamay. Burgundian Pinot tends to be floral and earthy, while their Gamay is fruity and easygoing. These are wines designed for roast chicken or mushroom risotto. Bordeaux deftly balances the thick-skinned, heavier grapes of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, and Merlot. The broad-shouldered Bordelais blends offer a nuanced, complex bouquet of aromas thanks to extensive ageing in oak barrels and fare well with steak au poivre or black-bean burgers. Côtes du Rhône focuses on firm, boisterous wines made from Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre. Noted for their spicy, meaty character, these wines pair wonderfully with rack of lamb or eggplant lasagna.

CHÂTEAU DE MONTFAUCON
LA CÔTE CÔTES DU RHÔNE 2019
 AP, Rhône

(Translated from the French) This attractive Rhone wine blends five grape varieties into a symphony that opens with a refined nose of stewed raspberries and garrigue and refreshing notes of menthol. The long ageing of 24 months in vats has produced a perfectly balanced palate. Juicy red fruits and hints of tobacco contribute lingering scents to the sweet and subtly tannic mouthfeel. Spices appear on the finish, adding complexity. A mature wine that retains good ageing potential. [Drink till 2028.] Score: ★★☆☆ (Guide Hachette, 2022)

Full-bodied & Smooth

13439 (XD) 750 mL $21.95 ✓

FRANÇOIS VILLARD MAIRLANT
SAINT-JOSEPH SYRAH 2020

AC, Rhône

Saturated violet color. Vibrant, spice-tinged dark berry, cherry, potpourri and licorice aromas are sharpened by a smoky mineral flourish. Fresh blackberry and bitter cherry flavors become sweeter with air and show a salty olive nuance on the back half. Well-delineated and energetic in style, finishing spicy and quite long, with gently chewy tannins and resonating florality. 50% whole clusters. Drinking window: 2026-2034. Score: 93 (Josh Reynolds, vinous.com, Dec. 2022)

VAUCHER PÈRE & FILS FLEURIE 2022

AC, Beaujolais

This is an attractive version of Fleurie, one of the top-rated of the Beaujolais crus. The nose is very expressive and aromatic, while the palate is full of dark fruit, with some spicy top notes for good measure. The acidity is assertive, and well aligned with the fruit. This lovely wine is very dry, even verging on astringent, and it calls for food, rather than to be drunk on its own. Drink now to 2029. Score: 93 (Rod Phillips, April 2023)

SOLICANTUS MELODIE DU SOL 2020

WOMEN IN WINE

Solicantus: Uprooted, uplifted.

Breaking into an industry that has thousands of years of history, dynasties and châteaux is no easy feat. It's even harder when you're a woman and a person of colour native to a country that doesn't specialize in wine.

Despite all that, nothing deterred Namratha Prashanth's entrepreneurial spirit. Prashanth was always passionate about wine (she had learned about wine and viticulture through her college hospitality program), but life had other plans. She was in the predicament of being married into a staunchly traditionalist, patriarchal household that stunted her growth.

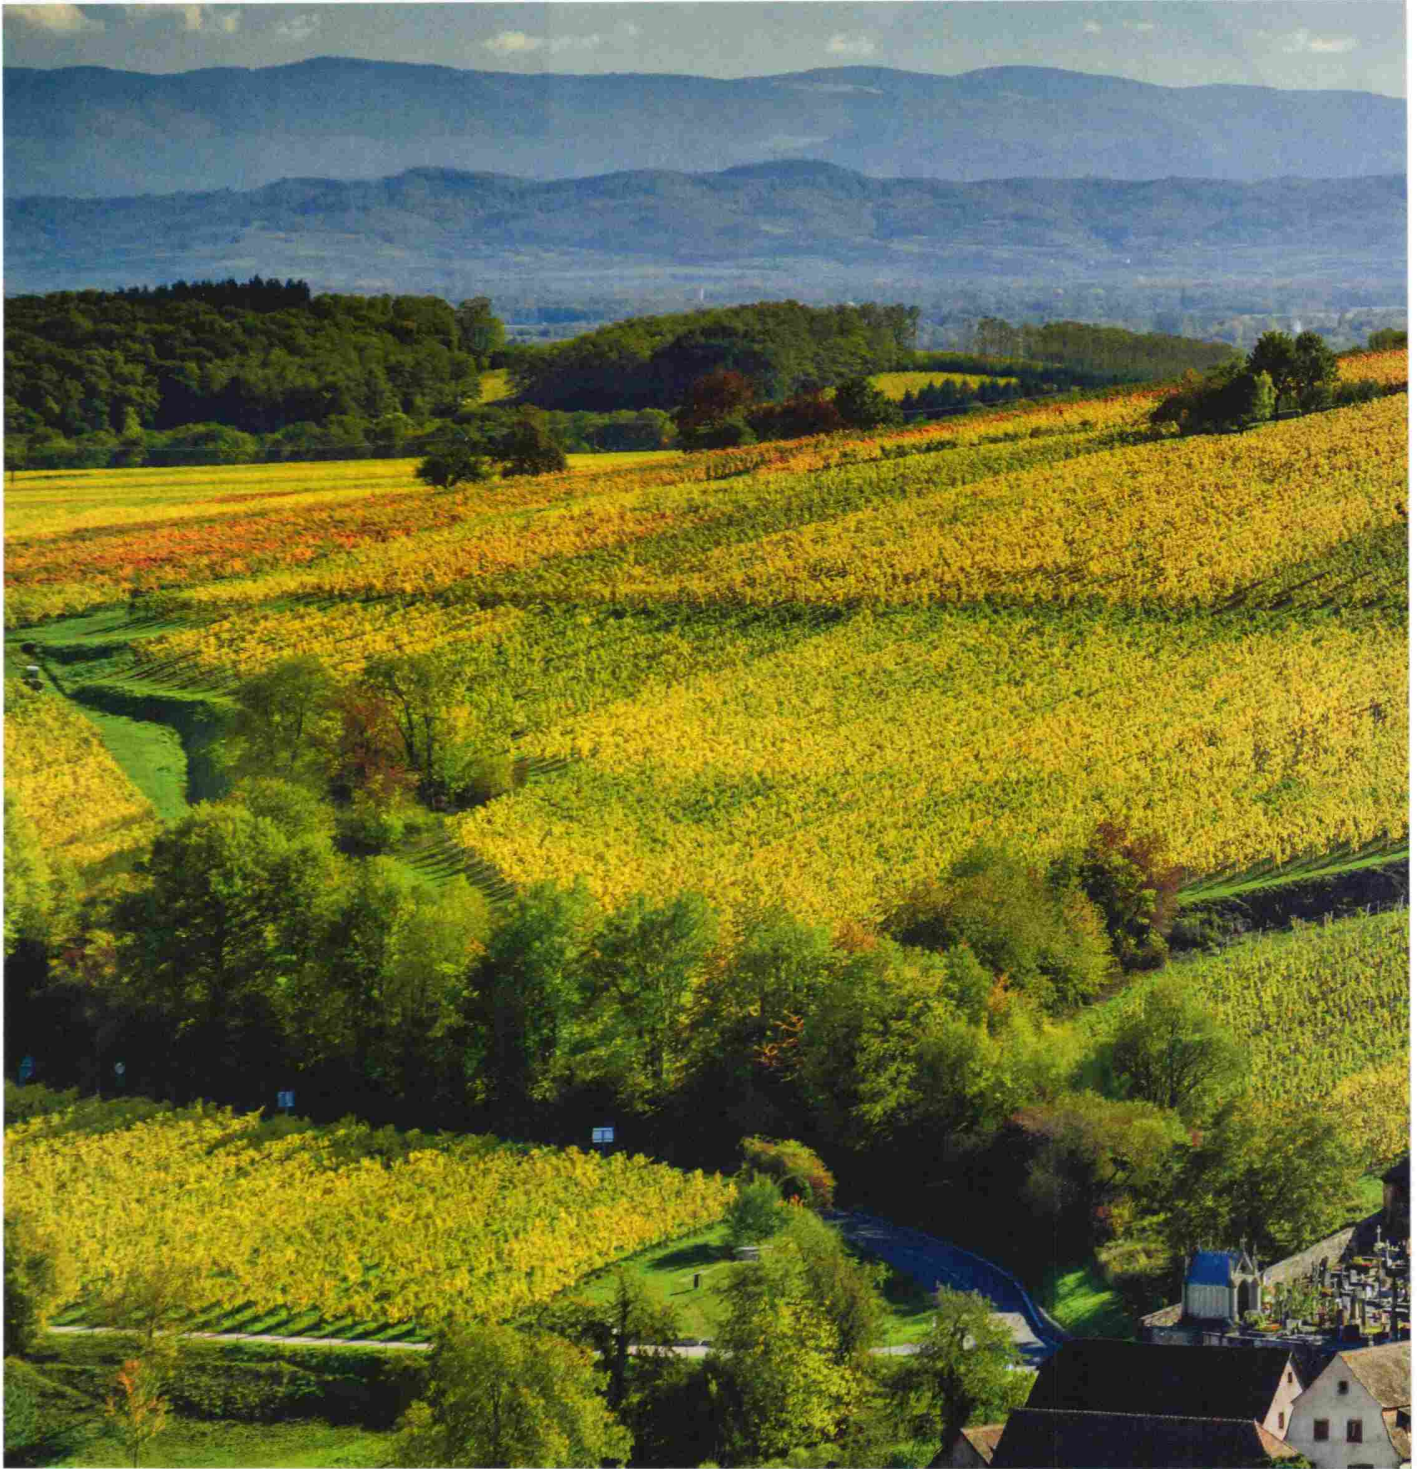

After leaving her situation and moving to Bordeaux, finding work was difficult. She learned all about wine-growing and harvest as an apprentice for Château Siran in the Médoc.

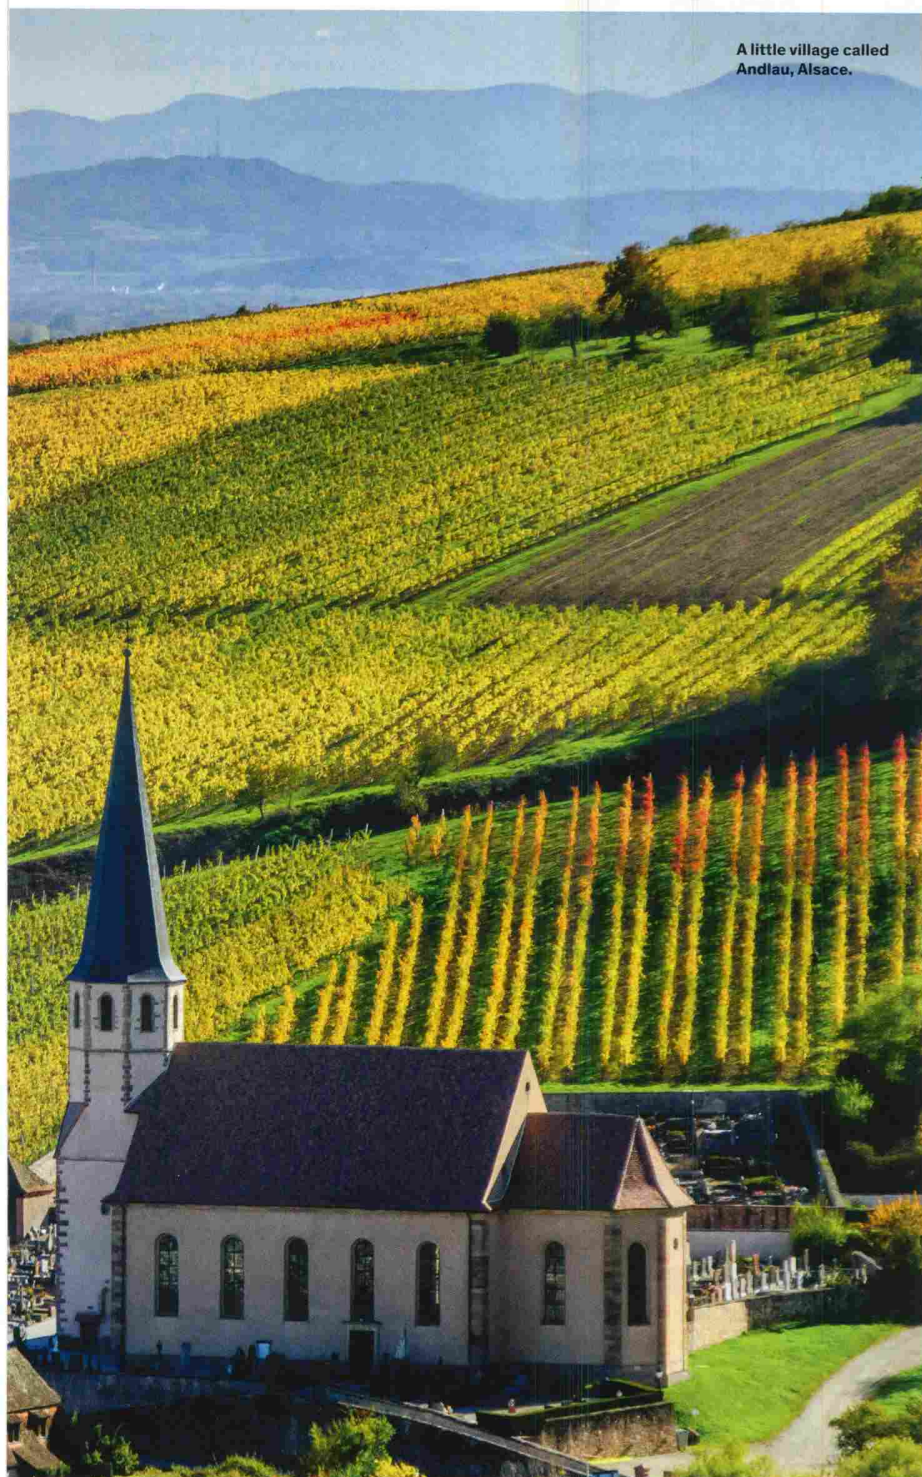

Later, she learned to make wine under the wing of Château Bel-Air La Royère winemaker Corinne Chevrier-Loriaud, who allowed a few of her parcels of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Malbec to be used for Prashanth's own wine.

The pair created Solciantus: a celebration of terroir, harmony, determination and perseverance.

"Today I have no regrets. Everything has made me stronger as a woman. The reward for me of this work is to empower women." (Namratha Prashanth, quoted in Forbes, July 13, 2020)

WHITE KNIGHTS

A little village called Andlau, Alsace.

France is a master class on the importance of origin, which is why they created the Appellation d'Origine Contrôlée (AOC) system. Developed in 1924 and put into law in 1935, the AOC system was designed to protect the consumer from fraudulent bottles and assure a level of quality to be expected from the stated region.

JOSEPH CATTIN
GEWURZTRAMINER 2022

Sustainable, AC Alsace

The German grapes grown in Alsace offer more perfumed aromas and bolder flavours than their finely detailed German counterparts. This aromatic, spicy example is full of flavour, with notes of pineapple, lychee, ginger root and chamomile. From the renowned Cattin family, it's a good example of Alsatian quality without the price tag.

The town square of Chablis, Burgundy.

Take Chablis, which is one of the finest Chardonnay-producing regions in the world. Chablisien wines are light, crisp, steely, and laced with fine minerality thanks to the area's Kimmeridgian soils, which are composed of ancient seashell, limestone, and marl. This makes a nicely chilled glass of Chablis the perfect match for sushi or the traditional pairing of escargots. Or how about Alsace? Famous for its architecture, the region is a mosaic of complex soils and sports both German and French varieties such as Riesling, Gewürztraminer, and Pinot Blanc. These wines make an excellent accompaniment to a garden salad topped with goat cheese. These familiar grapes are found all over the world, and France shows us it's their origin, their terroir, that makes them so fascinating, wherever they plant their roots.

CLOSERIE DES ALISIERS BOURGOGNE ALIGOTÉ 2022

AP, Burgundy
(Stéphane Brocard)

Chardonnay is the most prominent white grape in Burgundy, but small villages will offer the lesser-known Aligoté for the adventurous looking for a full wine with subtle flavours. Crafted by the celebrated winemaker Stéphane Brocard, this wine is lovely and well-structured, with notes of quince, cashew, and white tea followed by a smoky finish.

THINK PINK

Colour in wine is caused by contact with the grape skin. After crushing, the fermenting grape juice will be left with the skins for days to extract colour, flavour, tannins, and other qualities. Rosé is made by shortening the time of skin contact, usually to only 4-12 hours. A good winemaker knows il faut battre le fer tant qu'il est chaud (you must strike while the iron is hot). Timing is everything in rosé winemaking. Though rosé is made all over the world and can be made from nearly any red grape, the rosés from the South of France are considered the benchmark of quality and are made from a blend of Grenache, Syrah, Carignan, Cinsault and Mourvèdre. Rosé's elegance is best enjoyed on the beach, preferably with BBQ shrimp skewers or a salade niçoise, which is why the regions of Provence and Languedoc are ideal for making rosé. Bordering the Mediterranean Sea, these regions emulate that vacation-by-the-beach feeling and craft light, delicate rosés to accompany it, offering aromas of grapefruit, watermelon, strawberry, jasmine oil and lavender.

SPARKLING PERSONALITIES

Believe it or not, bubbles in wine were considered a fault in the 17th century. Still wines were the expectation from notable regions like Champagne and Burgundy, but winemakers at the time were determined to harness the power of bubbles to their advantage. Vouloir, c'est pouvoir (where there's a will, there's a way), as they might say. After innovative Benedictine monks perfected the méthode champenoise (traditional method), sparkling wine became the most desired wine of the nobility. Many regions around France have since adopted or altered this method to craft their own sparkling wines, called Crémant: Bordeaux crafts lush sparklers made with Sauvignon Blanc and Sémillon, Burgundy makes fruity wine from Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, and Alsace creates aromatic bubbly with Riesling, Pinot Blanc and Auxerrois. French sparkling's brisk acidity and rich texture are great for celebrations, but what truly makes this beloved wine style so incredible is its flexibility to go with virtually any meal. And we do mean virtually any meal; from baked fish with lemon juice to fried chicken and waffles to salty potato chips, the possibilities with sparkling wine are endless.

A Heart So Big

Employee empowerment is at the heart of Great Heart: a new project by Andrea and Chris Mullineux of Swartland's award-winning, premium Mullineux & Leeu.

LCBO SPIRIT OF SUSTAINABILITY

At LCBO, we're focused on building a more sustainable future through an initiative called Spirit of Sustainability. To learn more about SoS and see some of our initiatives, visit LCBO.com/sustainability.

"Wine-growing and winemaking is incredibly rewarding," says Chris, "but it involves long hours of hard work, and Andrea and I have high standards that often require our team to go the extra mile. We wanted to give back to our team for going well beyond what would normally be expected and helping us create what we feel are truly incredible wines. So we started a wine company with our staff where they make their own wine under a brand and company that they own 100%. Our business supports them by providing much of the infrastructure and capital, but the wines belong to our team and [20% of] sales go directly to them."

This special business model creates a winery where employees "pay more attention to detail, asking questions and being more interested in what we're doing," says Great Heart winemaker Gynore Hendricks. "Everybody works hard and everybody's involved."

Hendricks, who is a graduate of the prestigious Cape Winemakers Guild Protégé Programme, is born and bred in Swartland, where Great Heart and Mullineux & Leeu are based. "Everything that comes out of the Swartland is amazing," she says. "It's a very dry, warm area, but it also has the influence of the Atlantic Ocean and that makes for cooler nights in the summer. The soil types we have here are very unique to the Swartland. The terroir, growing conditions and soil make for spectacular wines."

GREAT HEART CHENIN BLANC 2021

(Mullineux & Leeu)

"You can just taste the sun in this Chenin. It's a fresh wine but also a serious wine. You have that depth in the mid-palate. It's a spectacular mirror of the Swartland. I personally enjoy drinking the Chenin with a spicy curry and basmati rice, but you can also enjoy it in the summer on its own." Gynore Hendricks

Kelly Mason/ Brooke Husband / Queylus

Born and raised in Montreal, Kelly Mason has been with Queylus since 2013, becoming head winemaker in 2018. Kelly specializes in Chardonnay and Pinot Noir and her work in Ontario has included stints with such notables as Tawse and Le Clos Jordanne. Queylus assistant winemaker Brooke Husband graduated from Niagara College's winery and viticulture program in 2018. Brooke has a specific interest in wild-fermented Pinot Noir and Chardonnay and her work saw her awarded the Paul Pender Rising Star Award at the 2023 Ontario Wine Awards. The winning team behind Queylus is rounded out by sales and marketing director Jo Pacinda and administrative director and property manager Theresa Mildenerger.

Jessica Otting / Tawse

Jessica Otting became assistant wine-maker at Tawse in 2018 and was part of the team that established the Tawse spirits program. "My very first harvest I worked for Marilize Beyers at Flat Rock. She was so passionate and willing to throw me into whatever needed doing. She was patient with me even when I was slow or made mistakes. If it weren't for her support, I'm not sure I would have had a chance in this industry." Since 2020, Jessica has overseen winemaking for both Tawse and Redstone wineries. "This industry has come a long way in terms of diversity and inclusion, but we still have so far to go. I believe it's my responsibility as a woman in a leadership position to do what I can to work for all under-represented groups."

Amélie Bourie / Château des Charmes

Amélie Bourie grew up on a farm in northern France only 45 minutes from Champagne. Her love affair with wine goes back to her youngest years, when she would be given "a very small Champagne flute by my grandparents for me to cheers with everyone." Amélie's mother encouraged her "to learn the names of plants and to memorize their scents, and my father is a wine aficionado. I became the house expert at describing the scents of flowers. It was this idyllic lifestyle that led me to my initial career as a perfumer. It wasn't long after, however, that my deep connection to the land inspired me to pursue viticulture and oenology, and for 15 years, this has been my career."

Simone Ardiel / Rockway Vineyards

Simone Ardiel grew up on a fruit farm, where she would help her parents when they made wine and hard cider. After graduating high school, she entered Niagara College's winery and viticulture program. "After graduating, I travelled to hone my winemaking knowledge and experience. Early on in my travels, I worked a harvest in Oregon under Luisa Ponzi at Ponzi Vineyards. Luisa has extensive knowledge in wine and was very family-focused, having four children with her husband while running her family winery, not to mention sitting on several advisory and wine organization boards. Luisa continues to inspire me as I start to grow my own family while I work and build my career."

GONZÁLEZ BYASS NECTAR PEDRO XIMÉNEZ DULCE SHERRY

Vegan, DO, Spain

Outrageously concentrated, sweet, liquid prune, honey, maple syrup and treacle-chocolate-flavoured PX here. Wow, it's hard to imagine stuffing more flavour into this wine – it's like drinking syrup, yet has excellent acids and shape is provided by some phenolic drag. Length is exceptional as well. Sweet as it is (and it is extremely sweet), this is an exceptional experience. What more can one ask for in this style of wine? Tasted October 2021. Score: 95 (John Szabo, MS, winealign.com)

ORLEANS BORBÓN MANZANILLA FINA

DO Manzanilla – Sanlúcar de Barrameda, Spain

Originally extracted from vines planted on albariza soil in 1973, this wine was extracted from cask in 2019 (the saca date on the bottle). It has the salt-water scent of fine Manzanilla, along with the chamomile flower note that gives the wine its name. Clean, with beautiful volume in the mouth, this lingers on lightly toasted almond flavors. Score: 92 (Joshua Greene, wineandspiritsmagazine.com, Aug. 2021)

BEAUJOLAIS

VAUCHER PÈRE & FILS FLEURIE 2022

This is an attractive version of Fleurie, one of the top-rated of the Beaujolais crus. The nose is very expressive and aromatic, while the palate is full of dark fruit, with some spicy top notes for good measure. The acidity is assertive, and well aligned with the fruit. This lovely wine is very dry, even verging on astringent, and it calls for food, rather than to be drunk on its own. Drink now to 2029. Score: 93 (Rod Phillips, April 2023)

READY IN 2 HOURS

A person in a grey long-sleeved shirt is holding a black shopping bag with the LCBO logo. The bag is filled with various bottles of wine and spirits. In the foreground, on a light-colored table, there is a charcuterie board with cheese, salami, and bread, along with two wine glasses, one containing red wine. A cork and a corkscrew are also on the table.

Making a home

CHÂTEAU DE NAGES HÉRITAGE COSTIÈRES DE NÎMES 2021

AP, Rhône, France

Originally purchased by the family patriarch during World War II, Château de Nages became the Gassier family's sanctuary when they fled their native Algeria. Five generations later, the family continues to run the estate with care and pride. This elegant, harmonious wine would be at home on any dinner table.
