MEET OUR BUYERS

NEW WORLD WINES

Elena Delli Pizzi

“To me, wine means family. Many of my earliest memories are of my Italian-immigrant parents and grandparents crushing grapes in the garage, working together on their homemade wine. I’ve been lucky to experience a range of wines from all over the world and have completed WSET’s Level 2 Award in Wines. I’m always inspired by the history of the wineries we work with, most of which are family-driven as well.”

Dana Pencz

“My buying career led me to the exciting world of wine. I love how wine can be a source of pride and heritage. My Hungarian father would often proudly talk about Tokaji at the dinner table. As we shared a bottle, he reminisced about growing up in Hungary. Since joining the LCBO, I have achieved my WSET Award in Wines Level 2 and Level 3.”

Marc Staples

“Wine and food go hand in hand, and I love being able to find something new, delicious, and sometimes surprising to go with what I create in the kitchen. I achieved my WSET diploma in 2003 and have been an educator ever since, for the trade and for the wine-loving public, both formally and informally. Finding great wines at an affordable price is my passion.”

ONTARIO WINES

Sean Adams

“Years ago, my family took me on a winery trip to Niagara. I was amazed at the brilliant wines we’re lucky to have growing right here in our own province. As a buyer at LCBO, I feel privileged to be bringing Ontario’s best to you. With more Ontario VQA wines garnering international acclaim each year, there’s always something new and exciting to discover! My certifications include WSET Level 3 and the Wine Appellations of Ontario certificate.”

EUROPEAN WINES

Kristy Petra

“As the latest addition to the LCBO buying team and a wine lover who recently acquired my WSET Level 2 designation, I enjoy exploring different grape varietals and uncovering ‘my flavours,’ one sip at a time! I believe wines should be both accessible and enjoyable. As a buyer with a customer-focused approach, I love discovering great-value wines that our customers can enjoy for any occasion.”

Liam Salichuk

“A decade of experience in the beverage alcohol industry and a huge appreciation for Ontario craft beer complements my passion for our diverse wine market. I love having friends over for dinner, and there’s something special about picking the perfect wine to make the meal even more enjoyable. I’ve always advocated for finding great-value wines to pair with every occasion.”

Julie Hauser

“Wine is a wonderful way to connect with people and places. I love the experience of discovery and how the unique combination of aromas and flavours can create a sensory journey. I’m a certified sommelier and love finding delicious wines that can be explored and shared.”

Laura Ruffolo

“In my twenties, I wanted to explore the world of wine, but didn’t know where to start. I took a wine appreciation course offered at the LCBO, which sparked a thirst to learn more. The rest is history! I earned my WSET diploma in 2010 and French Wine Scholar certification in 2014. I love hosting dinner parties and pairing the perfect wine with each dish.”

SOARING QUALITY

Sean “

The Falcon's Nest is elegant, long and ageable, with cherry, raspberry, earth, and a bright, food-friendly acidity. Try it tonight with braised meats or mushroom gnocchi or hold onto it for your next special occasion.”

Building a sustainable future

Through investments like their LEED v4-certified Rioja winery, Beronia is forging a legacy of sustainability.

LCBO SPIRIT OF SUSTAINABILITY

At LCBO, we're focused on building a more sustainable future through our Spirit of Sustainability initiative, which celebrates trade partners who work to promote diversity and inclusion, community investment and sound environmental practices. Learn more at LCBO.com/sustainability.

From the outside, Beronia's Rioja winery blends seamlessly into the landscape, but there's a world of activity under the surface. "Most of the winery is underground," says Chief Sustainability Officer Victoria González-Gordon, "so the landscape remains more or less the same, and then what is outside is really really integrated. The shape is adapted to the specific landscape, with an orientation that makes the most of the natural light," reducing energy usage. From the roof that collects rainwater for reuse in the winery, to the gravity-flow design that moves the wines further underground during production, to the geothermal energy that makes the most of the earth's natural temperature, "everything was really thought of for the winery to be safe and sustainable since the start."

Beronia's Rueda winery is also sustainable by design, with 77.76% of its energy for 2023 provided by renewables, including photovoltaic panels and a biomass boiler that converts vine cuttings and other agricultural waste into clean energy. Both wineries are certified by Sustainable Wineries for Climate Protection, which is one of the eight different sustainability certifications held by Beronia. Says González-Gordon, "for both wineries, sustainability is key in terms of looking after the land. We are a natural product that comes from the earth, so we need to look after it, and the richer that is, the better the wines."

I love it because...

1. It's Sauvignon Blanc blended with Semillon, which is not widely planted in Ontario.
2. There are flavours of grapefruit, guava and peach, with a round, textured mouthfeel.
3. It can pair well with spices. Try it with kimchi, chicken shawarma, or lentil soup.

LUNA NUDA PINOT GRIGIO 2023*

IGT Vigneti delle Dolomiti (Castelfeder)

Castelfeder is family-owned, founded in 1970 by Alfons Giovanetti. It's now under the stewardship of the fourth generation. "Luna Nuda" ("Naked Moon") describes a bright full moon shining in a clear night sky over the vineyards; a sight considered both beautiful and inspirational. Expect a delicately aromatic wine with notes of apple, citrus and white flowers. Enjoy with lemon-dressed baked fish, shrimp scampi, or fresh fruit and ricotta.

MARCHE

VELENOSI QUERCANTICA VERDICCHIO DEI CASTELLI DI JESI CLASSICO 2023

DOC

The 2023 Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Classico Querciantica opens with a pretty blend of dried flowers, raw almonds and young peach. It's oily in texture with a core of brisk acidity and tart orchard fruits to balance. Tactile mineral tones add form toward the close. The 2023 tapers off long and classically dry, with tart lime traces that curl the tongue. This is a beautifully balanced Verdicchio, especially at this price point. Drinking window: 2024-2027. Score: 89 (Eric Guido, vinous.com, May 2, 2024)

VENETO

BRIGALDARA SOAVE 2023

DOC, sustainable

Sensibly under screw cap, a righteous closure for this sort of pungent, mineral-infused, mid-weighted white. And very good it is, too, albeit in a more traditional, chewy mold. Orchard fruit, jasmine and a twist of tangerine peel, marking a nobly bitter finish of excellent persistence. Very good drinking. Sustainable. Drink or hold. NARDELLI NEGROAMARO/
PRIMITIVO 2022

IGP Puglia

This wine is mostly Negroamaro with a dash of Primitivo. Both varieties are sourced from vines that grow in soils rich in calcareous stone and benefit from cool morning breezes, allowing for good balance and freshness as the grapes ripen. Look for tangy dark berry, spice and earth, and pair with grilled chicken or mildly spiced ribs.
