wines of the month

Elegant opulence

CARODORUM ISSOS CRIANZA 2020

DO Toro, Spain

43626 (XD) 750 mL $24.95

This dark-ruby-colored wine offers aromas of raspberry liqueur, clove and roasted red and yellow pepper. It is full on the palate, with luxurious tannins and flavors of blackberry preserves, black cherry, anisette, dark chocolate and orange zest. A soft note of violet persists into the enduring finish. Score: 92 (Mike DeSimone, Wine Enthusiast, July 1, 2023)

Medium-bodied & Fruity

New at Vintages

TYRRELL'S RUFUS STONE HEATHCOTE SHIRAZ 2022

Heathcote, Victoria, vegan

91488 (XD) 750 mL $24.95

An outlier of the range, moving away from the spiritual Hunter turf. Ancient Cambrian soils, the oldest in the world. This wine was once a behemoth. Today, tidily compact and eminently drinkable despite the fuller weight, sweeter brood of fruit and the reductive ode to tension. Tapenade, blue fruit, iodine and a hint of menthol. A little gritty across the edges, but will placate those on the hunt for richer, slightly throaty styles. Drink or hold. Score: 92 (Ned Goodwin, MW, jamesuckling.com, Sept. 12, 2023)

EASTER EATS

YOU'RE SERVING

STARTERS

Celery Caesar-ish Salad from the Food & Drink recipe archives features celery instead of romaine, and farro to make it more substantial. To find this and dozens of other recipes, visit LCBO.com and enter "salad" in the search bar.

PAIR IT WITH

Fino sherry or fizz

WHY IT WORKS

When pairing with starters, versatility is key, and that's where Fino sherry and sparkling wines really shine. Dry and elegant with a lovely briny quality, Fino cleanses the palate between bites while being mellow enough for exuberant foods featuring zingy vinaigrettes or spices. Sparkling wines, meanwhile, feature brilliant acidity that cuts through rich, fatty or oily foods. And both fizz and Fino pair particularly well with seafoods, soups or salty bites.

HIDALGO FINO SECO SHERRY

DO Jerez, Spain
(Emilio Hidalgo)

Fino is a dry, elegant style of Sherry that in the Jerez region of Spain is made from Palomino grapes. This stunningly refined example is crafted from 100% Palomino and aged an average of six to seven years. Evoking wildflowers on the nose followed by green olives and freshly baked bread on the palate, it will pair beautifully with tapas or your favourite appetizers.

Dry
645267 (XD) 750 mL $24.95 🍷

This super-simple Warm Eggplant Spread from the Food & Drink archives is drizzled with tahini, date molasses and yogurt. For the recipe, visit LCBO.com and type “eggplant” into the search bar.

CA' DI RAJO EXTRA DRY PROSECCO
DI VALDOBBIADENE SUPERIORE 2023

DOCG, Veneto, Italy

An intense nose of white blossoms, Parma Violets, tangerines, ripe golden apples and pears accompanies a generous palate of ripe orchard fruit, melons and a waxy, textured mouthfeel.

YOU'RE SERVING

CHICKEN OR TURKEY

PAIR IT WITH

Full-bodied whites or medium-bodied reds

WHY IT WORKS

Chicken and turkey have less marbling than red meats, so you don't need big, burly tannins to cut through the fat. Full-bodied white wines often have a touch of tannin from oak, which suits the leanness of the food nicely, while the fuller body of the wine matches the consistency. Similarly, the harmonious tannins and elegance of medium-bodied red wines fit the occasion without overshadowing the food.

RADFORD DALE VINUM
CHENIN BLANC 2023

WO Stellenbosch, South Africa

Grapes from the same Lynedoch vineyard planted in 1969 that supplies Radford Dale's top-end Renaissance bottling ... Citrus, peach and just the right amount of leesy, waxy complexity on the nose. Great fruit concentration, punchy acidity and pithy, slightly bitter finish. Old-vine Chenin treated with the lightest of hands to great effect.

Alc: 13%. Score: 94 (Christian Eedes, winemag.co.za, Sept. 17, 2024)

Full-bodied & Rich

13338 (XD) 750 mL $19.95 ✎

BACHELDER L'ARDOISE NIAGARA
CHARDONNAY 2023

VQA Niagara Peninsula, Ontario

From one of Ontario's most renowned winemakers, this delicious, crisp, tangy, balanced Chardonnay exemplifies elegance and complexity. "Ardoise" means "slate," which is apt, since L'Ardoise is sourced from several prime sites rich in Niagara's ancient limestone. It shows apple, pear, orchard blossoms, vanilla, cinnamon and smoke and would pair beautifully with smoked salmon.

Full-bodied & Rich

302083 (XD) 750 mL $25.95 ✎

WESTCOTT ESTATE PINOT NOIR 2021 🍁
VQA Niagara Escarpment, Ontario, sustainable

From estate vineyards in Vinemount Ridge and Twenty Mile Bench, this poised, perfumed, savoury Pinot Noir boldly declares its Niagara quality. A finessed, lithe, charming wine that will elevate your holiday table, bringing grace and style to the party.

Medium-bodied & Fruity
427500 (XD) 750 mL $31.95 ✂

EMILIANA NOVAS GRAN RESERVA
PINOT NOIR 2023

Valle de Casablanca, Chile, sustainable, vegan
Plenty of fruit, with berries, cherries, red flowers and a touch of orange peel and nutmeg. Juicy strawberries on the palate. Firm, round tannins with good length in a fruity finish. It shows nice pinot character. From organically grown grapes. Vegan. Drink now. Score: 92 (Zekun Shuai, jamessuckling.com, Feb. 10, 2024)

Medium-bodied & Fruity
14148 (XD) 750 mL $17.95 🍷

🌿 Organic product

TOMMASI RAFAËL VALPOLICELLA
CLASSICO SUPERIORE 2022

DOC, Veneto, Italy

A solid expression of Ripasso with no shortage of oak tannins. Notes of camphor, forest floor, dark fruit, menthol, aniseed and spruce. The mid-palate packs plenty of flavor and yet there is an undeniable freshness that confers lift, energy and impressive length. This wine is barely mid-weighted, and yet the intensity of flavor suggests something with more body. Welcome astringency in the finish. Good drinking. Drink or hold. Score: 90 (jamessuckling.com, April 3, 2024)

Medium-bodied & Fruity

GRILLED OR ROAST MEATS

QUADRUS RED 2019

DOP Douro, Portugal

This blend of Touriga Nacional, Tinta Roriz and Sousão comes from vineyards planted in 2005 and selected by Tony Amaro of Toronto's Opus Restaurant. It shows dark cherry, plum, clove, and pepper spice. Enjoy it with braised meats or cellar through 2030.

Full-bodied & Smooth

440305 (XD) 750 mL $25.95

QUADRUS
DOURO
2019

PAIR IT WITH

Full-bodied reds

WHY IT WORKS

The heft and boldness of full-bodied red wines match the bigger flavours and textures of the meat, while the tannins in the wine cut through, and are themselves softened by, the fatty marbling. To get the ideal interplay of fatty meat and full-bodied red, serve firm (higher tannin) wines with seared or grilled meats that see quicker cooking times, and smooth (lower tannin) wines with slow-cooked meats where the fatty marbling has more fully rendered.

SANTA ISLE CASA TERRA SELECTED VINEYARDS GRAND RESERVE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2020

Valle del Maule, Chile

Juicy palate with smoke and tar followed by red fruits and roasted peppers with fine firm tannin. Savoury – one for food. Score: 94 (Decanter World Wine Awards, 2022)

SENTIDO TEMPRANILLO 2020

DO Ribero del Duero, Spain
(Neo)

Dark garnet in the glass, this wine has aromas of black currant, cedar chest and dark chocolate. Dark fruit flavors fill the palate alongside notes of licorice, mocha, sage leaf and eucalyptus. It is full in the mouth with robust tannins that linger into a long-lasting finish. Score: 94 (Mike DeSimone, Wine Enthusiast, April 1, 2024)

YOU'RE SERVING

SEAFOOD

PAIR IT WITH

Crisp whites, aromatic whites or medium-bodied rosé

WHY IT WORKS

Seafood is generally lean, so there's no call for big tannins in the wine. Instead, the briny marine quality in seafood is perfect for crisp, vibrant wines featuring bright acidity. Crisp and aromatic white wines can act like a squeeze of citrus or sprig of parsley with the food, cleansing the palate while complementing the flavours. Heartier fish, such as salmon, can pair nicely with aromatic whites or the extra oomph of a medium-bodied rosé.

TASTE THESE WINES

VEGETARIAN FARE

These Thousand-Layer Potatoes from the Food & Drink recipe archives are crispy and outrageously delicious. To find this and dozens of other potato recipes, visit LCBO.com and enter "potato" in the search bar.

PAIR IT WITH

White wines, light-bodied reds

WHY IT WORKS

Veggie fare encompasses a big range of flavours and textures. Thankfully, there's a wine out there for all of them. If your menu features veggies like bell peppers, bok choy, green beans or zucchini, crisp or aromatic white wines will do the trick. If rich, buttery squash or potato is the star of the show, full-bodied whites are the way to go. And light-bodied red wines are ideal with earthy beetroot, eggplant or mushrooms.

THE HARE CHARDONNAY 2020

VQA Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario

This new addition to the Hare stable (er, warren?) is bright, elegant and nicely balanced, with suggestions of orchard fruit, citrus and mineral. A versatile food wine.

EARTHY ETHOS

Meet four future-minded Niagara crafters who are firmly focused on sustainable winemaking.

Across Niagara, winemakers work tirelessly to produce wines that perfectly reflect the premium quality of this remarkable region. One of the most important tools at their disposal is the use of sustainable winemaking practices. Sustainable winemaking allows wineries, like the four highlighted here, to make great wines today while also ensuring that Niagara will be producing dynamic, authentic wines for decades to come.

Southbrook Vineyards

Southbrook was granted certified-organic status under the Canadian Organic Regime (COR) in 2008. The certification covers both their grapes and wine, and they are now certified organic by Ecocert.

“Sustainability challenges us to evaluate how we’re farming and what winemaking processes could be improved upon in order to benefit the environment, our business and our community,” says winemaker Casey Hogan. “For me, this involves everything from packaging considerations that affect our carbon footprint to training programs that foster a happy, healthy and safe workplace... and everything in between.”

Featherstone Estate Winery

Featherstone pioneered the use of sheep in the vineyard in Niagara. The sheep spend 4-6 weeks trimming grape leaves from the fruiting zone on the vines and are relocated once the grapes start to ripen.

“As leaders in social responsibility, we feel an obligation to cultivate positive relationships not only at the winery, but within the region. With this in mind, on April 5, Featherstone’s owners, George and Rayla Myhal, will be announcing an exciting new initiative with Niagara College,” says Louise Engel, Featherstone co-founder. “We hope that this sort of behaviour is contagious and will encourage others to follow suit. There are so many ways we can all help.” Visit featherstonewinery.ca for details.

Stratus Vineyards

When Stratus opened in 2005, it was the world’s first LEED-certified winemaking facility.

Among its many sustainable practices, Stratus recycles vineyard waste (specifically trunk and vine cuttings) through an ancient technique called pyrolysis. This process turns green matter into biochar that can be used to help create water balance in the soil and prevent nutrient leaching. “Sustainability is integral to every decision we make at Stratus, from our vineyard and winemaking practices to our retail and event experiences. We are constantly striving to reduce our carbon footprint in all aspects of our business and ensure that we leave the soil we farm in a better condition than we found it,” says winemaker Dean Stoyka.

Henry of Pelham Family Estate Winery

Henry of Pelham's sustainability efforts go beyond what they do in the vineyard and winery and include supporting important community initiatives like Big Brothers and Big Sisters.

"Sustainability has always been a core value at Henry of Pelham, demonstrable by the fact that my brothers Paul, and especially Matt, were involved in the establishment of the standard we now know as Sustainable Winegrowing Ontario well over 20 years ago," explains co-owner and senior vice-president of sales Daniel Speck. "This isn't an airy-fairy box-checking exercise. It's a standard that considers a real and attainable goal that is grounded in pragmatism and science, and it's ever-evolving. Like us."

AC Listrac-Médoc
(Chanfreau, prop.)

Fonréaud's vineyard is on the highest point in the Médoc (all of 120 feet), at the southern end of the Listrac appellation. This wine, as often with this property, has started out rugged and solid with firm dry tannins. The fruit though is all there and will show with increasing intensity over the next few years. Drink this powerful wine from 2018 [through 2027]. Score: 90 (Roger Voss, Wine Enthusiast, May 1, 2015)

RHÔNE

LA FERME DU MONT PREMIÈRE
CÔTE CÔTES DU RHÔNE 2022

AP, unfiltered
This wine always overdelivers, prompting many to refer to it as a baby Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Made up of 60% Grenache with 30% Syrah and the remainder Mourvèdre, it's big, rich and floral, with red and dark fruit alongside a complex mix of wild and savoury herbs, earth, garrigue and spice. There's power here, but it's beautifully contained and balanced. A glorious Côtes du Rhône.

Shore to delight

LEYDA GARUMA
COASTAL VINEYARDS
SAUVIGNON BLANC 2023
DO Valle de Leyda, Chile

Garuma gulls are small seagulls that live along the Chilean coastline. They can be seen scampering across the sand any time of year. Like its namesake, this vibrant wine hails from the seaside and is a year-round performer, with crisp notes of green pepper, citrus and flowers as refreshing as a sea breeze.
