Delicate tropical fruit, a hint of apricot,

BIRD IN HAND TWO IN THE BUSH SHIRAZ 2024

Adelaide Hills, South Australia

41874 (XD) 750 ml $19.95 ✂

... Nose: Raspberry, Cranberry, Blackberry, Burnt Leaves, Wood Grain, Smoke.
Palate: Full Bodied, smooth, forward tannin, long pepper finish. Food: Venison, roast beef, roast turkey, Osso Buco, Steak Tartare ... an excellent Shiraz ... On the first tasting I also noted Dark Chocolate which I did not note on the second tasting.
Some others have tasted chocolate several times. The wine is vibrant and has top class for a wine that is priced so reasonably. This is a wine that could be used as an everyday go to wine without breaking the wallet. Score: 94

Wines from Quebec are rarely seen in Ontario, so this is an awesome opportunity to discover some new Canadian goodness. It's a blend of 86% Gamaret (a grape that's new to me, which is very exciting) and 14% Gamay. Crisp and fruity, with a surprisingly weighty and textured finish.

Champagne is my absolute favourite beverage, and Grower Champagnes like this one give you a sense of place that can sometimes be missing from other bottlings. This wine has a gorgeous pale garnet colour, a spicy wildberry nose, a zesty mousse and a savoury mouthfeel. Lovely.

Slate-driven minerality is just the opening salvo for this tasty wine, which then fires off juicy stone fruit and layer after layer of tropical zest. All hand-picked fruit, six months' total lees ageing, and a wonderful crisp lemon finish make this wine a quaffable option to say the least.

White-wine fans, this region's for you

Situated along the Duero River in north-central Spain, the sunny wine region of Rueda (roo-AY-dah) is known for its stunning white wines.

The region's signature grape is Verdejo (ver-DAY-ho), which has grown there for 1,000 years and is prized for yielding gorgeously aromatic wines with notes of zesty citrus, white peach and herbs. More recently, Rueda has embraced the Sauvignon Blanc grape to make wines where the elegance of the Loire Valley version meets the intensity of the New Zealand style. Vivacious, crisp, and full of crowd-pleasing character, Rueda's white wines are versatile with food and perfect for warm-weather sipping.

WARM-WEATHER PAIRINGS

Spring is slipping into its summer clothing, and we couldn't be happier to enjoy a good meal on the patio – paired with the perfect local wine, of course.

When you're pairing wine and food, the most important thing is what you like, but there are some basics to keep in mind. Sparklers, rosés, and lighter-bodied reds are perfect for warm-weather dining because of their freshness, summery fruit flavours, and mouth-watering acidity. These factors also make them so great with food, especially lighter dishes that would be overpowered by heavier, bolder wines.

LOCAL TALENT

Sparkling wines are all about acidity, which means they can cut through the fats and oils in dishes like grilled salmon while being flexible enough to pair with something like a strawberry-arugula salad. Hinterland Whitecap Mini Sparkling 2025 will add just the right touch of zest to your meal. Pair with Food & Drink's Teriyaki Tofu Burger.

Rosés are usually made from red wine grapes that see little or virtually no skin contact during vinification, making them mouth-watering bridges between the vibrancy of white wines and the intensity of reds. Flat Rock Pink Twisted Rosé 2025 is a blend of red and white grapes. Pair with Food & Drink's Maple Lemon Grilled Salmon.

Light red wines such as Gamay bring the freshness and generous acidity one needs for warm-weather dining, but with just a little more weight and depth of flavour than a white or a rosé can offer. Featherstone Gamay Noir 2022 is super versatile, with an affinity for food that makes it an easy wine to pour with grilled veggies, sausages, or even ribs. Pair with Food & Drink's Quinoa-Crusted Pork Cutlets with Peas and Mint.

When you're thinking "lighter" red wine, it doesn't need to be as delicate as Gamay. The Adamo Bistro Red Blend 2021 is a Bordeaux blend comprising Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Malbec and Petit Verdot. This juicy, lithe, medium-bodied red has plenty of red fruit and some heft and structure. It's perfect for heartier fare, but it doesn't tip the scales into big, burly, and overpowering. Pair with Food & Drink's Fajita Mixed Grill with Feta Guacamole & Cherry Tomato Salsa.

VDT Castilla, vegan (Hammeken)

Balanced and round, this rosé leans heavily into strawberry fruit, with citrus, mild herbs, and rose petal notes in support. A distinct mineral character closes out the elegant, fresh profile. This is a fine sipping wine, but it has the body and structure to match with traditional and vegetarian barbecue fare.

DOMENIILE CUZA SAPERAVI/ FETEASCA NEAGRA 2023
PGI Valul lui Traian

From one of Republic of Moldova's oldest wineries, this red is made from 80% Saperavi and 20% Feteasca Neagra grapes, all of them grown on the estate. The fruit is harvested by hand and the wine is matured for two years in large oak casks. Evocative of blackcurrant, dried plum, spicy black pepper and vanilla, it will pair nicely with grilled pork or game.
