guide to great
Ontario wines.

Giving thanks

As we gather to enjoy the harvest of our local farms and vineyards, I like to have this bright, fresh Chardonnay on my table. It's a great pairing for Ontario's bounty, and proceeds from its sale go to Feed Ontario. We've been featuring it regularly since September 2013, so if you've ever bought a bottle, you've helped provide 200,000 meals to Ontarians in need. Thanks!

ARMENIA POMEGRANATE SEMISWEET*

I am a pomegranate fan, and this pale, medium sweet fruit wine captures impressive pomegranate authenticity – red fruit, pithy/seediness and considerable, pyrazinic greens and black pepper. PINOT NOIR 2023 🍁

VQA Vinemount Ridge, Niagara Peninsula
Quarry Road does it again – and easily offers the best value in the Tawse pinot lineup. Such an elegant, even and fragrant pinot. Nicely open and fragrant right out of the gate with quite ripe red/black cherry fruit, brambleberry, red rose florality, classic pinot forest floor and barrel spice mindful of cardamon and cedar wood. It is medium bodied with 12.5% abv, quite vibrant and firm with well-balanced acidity and tannin. Very mineral with classic limestone on the finish.
